

WHAT IF...

What if God were to ask you this question?

Where Are You?

- I. God: He wants to communicate with you
 - A. He sought to communicate with Adam & Eve - Gen. 3:8
 - B. God spoke to Adam - Gen. 3:9

- II. Man: We often want to avoid conversing with God
 - A. The question is intended to make us examine ourselves
 - B. The question reveals man's guilt
 1. Guilt causes us to run, rationalize and/or justify our sin
 2. A guilty conscience can help us keep our relationship with God pure if we biblically confess

- III. Nature of the question:
 - A. You must think on and evaluate your current situation
 - B. The question assumes a standard of right and wrong
