

I. The History of “deconstruction”

- A. A 1960’s French philosopher
  - 1. Truth is the construct of the human mind
- B. There is NO absolute truth
- C. There is NO authority to declare it

II. Is this new? I Jn. 2:18-19, Heb. 4:14

- A. It is found early in Church history
- B. It is prophesied of I Tim. 4:1-2

III. Can this be a good thing?

- A. Coming to your own conclusions can strengthen your faith II Cor. 13:5
  - 1. Assurance and confidence are powerful I Jn. 5:13-15

IV. Can this be a bad thing?

- A. Ask yourself:
  - 1. What am I deconstructing?
  - 2. What is my foundation?
  - 3. Has this come because of a bad experience?
  - 4. Do I just want to conform? Rom.12:2
  - 5. Is there theology I don’t like?

V. What is your end-game?

- A. To form new beliefs?
- B. To live without restrictions?
  - 1. This easily leads to destruction Rom.1:28-32
- C. To replace God?